

Regulations on the Selection of Director for the Institute of Marine Affairs and Resource Management, College of Ocean Science and Resource, National Taiwan Ocean
University

Announced during the institute meeting on September 3, 2003

Amended during the institute meeting on December 8, 2005

Approved by the President on February 24, 2006

Amended during the institute meeting on July 14, 2006

Revised and renamed on August 1, 2007

Amended during the institute meeting on August 5, 2008

Approved by the President on August 11, 2008

Amended during the institute meeting on February 22, 2012

Resolved during the college meeting on April 30, 2012

Resolved during the administrative meeting on May 10, 2012

Article 1

These regulations are established in accordance with the guidelines for the selection of supervisor for the academic unit of this university.

Article 2

The director of the institute must be at least a full-time associate professor of the Institute, whose term of office shall be 3 years and may be re-elected once.

Article 3

Within six months prior to the expiration of his/her term of office, the current director shall request the dean to organize a new director selection committee.

Article 4

The members of the director selection committee are as follows:

1. Chairman - Dean of the College
2. Members - consisting of five to seven members (including at least one-half of the faculty), selected among the Institute's directors, who are all full-time professors or at least part-time associate professors

Article 5

Director candidates shall be selected by full-time faculty members based on the qualifications stated in Article 2; after which, the director selection committee shall recommend to the dean two director candidates for president based on the number of votes.

Article 6

If the director is re-elected after garnering more than $\frac{2}{3}$ consenting votes from attendees belonging to $\frac{2}{3}$ of full-time faculty members, the dean may report the said director's re-election to the president.

Article 7

If there is a decision to remove the director, after reaching more than $\frac{2}{3}$ consenting votes from attendees belonging to $\frac{2}{3}$ of full-time faculty members, the dean may report to the president the said director's dismissal prior to expiration of the term of office.

Article 8

If the current director vacates his/her post during his/her term of office, the president may select an acting director among the institute's qualified full-time faculty members who are at least associate professors. The tenure shall not exceed one year until the new director is appointed.

Within two months of his/her term of office, the acting director shall request the dean to organize a new director selection committee.

Article 9

These regulations shall be enacted and implemented after approval during the institute meeting, college meeting and administrative meeting.